The Celestial Path
a poem by Larry C. Stout

When we started out together, so very long ago, we didn't even realize how much we didn't know.

The path was filled with puddles and threatened by many rocks. Our loved ones and the gospel, gave us many talks.

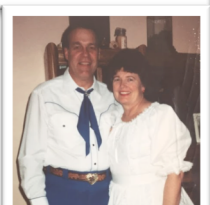

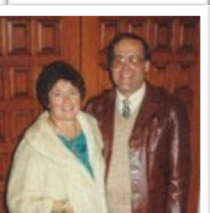

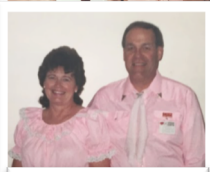

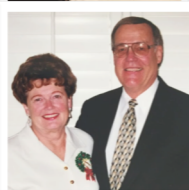

We huddled close together and moved toward the light. We stumbled down the path of life and tried to do what's right.

We come out of the shadows and are moving over the hill. We have been very blessed and tried to do God's will.

We pray that those who follow us will be as blessed as we. And know the celestial kingdom is where they want be.

We started in the shadow's and moved towards the light. We know our steps are guided with the celestial light in sight.

We know now where we want to go and this is our prayer. We will have the supreme blessing of all our loved ones there.
